

AUG 10 1953

AGENCY 3-1

X

CIA Chief Leaves For Alps Vacation

NEW YORK, Aug. 9 (AP) —

Allen W. Dulles, Central Intelligence Agency chief, left by plane for Europe today and some mountain climbing in the Swiss Alps.

Dulles, brother of the United States Secretary of State, said he would meet his wife in Zurich. They will end their vacation early next month.

CPYRGHT